1        Escada America LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the “Debtor”), the debtor 2 and debtor in possession in the above-captioned, chapter 11 bankruptcy case, hereby 3 respectfully submits the Debtor’s Confirmation Brief in Support of Debtor’s First Amended 4 Chapter 11 Reorganization Plan, Dated January 27, 2023 (the “Brief” and “Motion”). By 5 way of the Motion, the Debtor respectfully requests that the Court confirm the Debtor’s First 6 Amended Chapter 11 Reorganization Plan, Dated January 27, 2023 (the “Plan”) [ECF 425].
7 Unless otherwise indicated with specificity or implied by context, capitalized defined terms 8 used in this Motion have the same meanings as ascribed to them in the Plan. In support of this 9 Motion, the Debtor relies on this Motion, the Plan, the separately and concurrently filed 10 declaration of Kevin Walsh (the “Walsh Declaration”), the separately filed notice of the 11 hearing (the “Hearing”) on the Plan, the Disclosure Statement Describing Debtor’s First 12 Amended Chapter 11 Reorganization Plan, Dated January 27, 2023 (the “Disclosure 13 Statement”) [ECF 426], any other evidence and pleadings that the Debtor may file in support 14 of the Plan and arguments of counsel to be made at the Hearing in support of the Plan, and the 15 entire record in the case and the entire docket in the case.

16              I.            INTRODUCTION

17        The Plan is a reorganization plan with a frontloaded “pot plan” distribution to pay 18 creditors shortly after the Effective Date. This Motion presents a comprehensive analysis of the 19 Plan proposed by the Debtor. This Motion also sets forth the evidentiary basis upon which the 20 Debtor will request the Court to confirm the Plan pursuant to sections 1129(a), and, where 21 applicable, section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1141(d), by way 22 of this Motion, the Debtor specifically seeks a discharge of its debts such that all debts are 23 discharged except for those set forth in the Plan, and that the debts in the Plan will be treated 24 exclusively as set forth in the Plan. By way of this Motion, the Debtor also specifically seeks an 25 injunction that bars all parties from pursuing the collection or enforcement of any debt or claim 26 arising before the Plan Effective Date except as allowed pursuant to the Plan.

27
28

The Debtor's bases for confirmation of the Plan include this Motion, notice of the Motion, the Plan, the Walsh Declaration, the entire record and docket in the bankruptcy case, and any arguments to be made by counsel at the hearing to confirm the Plan.

II. SUMMARY OF PLAN

The Motion provides an abbreviated summary of the Plan terms. For the avoidance of doubt, the terms set forth in the Plan (and not the abbreviated summary in this Motion) control.

A. Summary of Plan Classes and Treatment

The Plan proposed by the Debtor is based on an extensively negotiated settlement term sheet (the “Term Sheet”) among the Debtor, the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the “Committee”), and three insider secured-creditor-affiliates of the Debtor: (i) Eden Roc International LLC (“Eden Roc”); (ii) Mega International LLC (“Mega”); and (iii) Escada Sourcing and Production LLC (“ESP”) (collectively, the “Secured Creditors”).<sup>1</sup> The Debtor entered into the Term Sheet and seeks to confirm the Plan because the Debtor believes the settlement among the Debtor, Secured Creditors and the Committee (i) is in the best interest of the estate and creditors, and (ii) is fair, reasonable and provides adequate consideration to the estate on account of the claims being compromised under the Plan. Among other things, the Debtor believes the settlement satisfies applicable Ninth Circuit law because (i) any potential litigation claims the estate holds against the Secured Creditors or other insiders are risky, complex and would be extremely expensive and time consuming to pursue, (ii) the Plan settlement provides for a prompt, certain cash recovery to creditors and thereby avoids the risk and difficulty in collecting any judgment(s) the estate might obtain against the Secured Creditors through protracted litigation, and (iii) two of the Debtor’s largest unsecured creditors signed the Term Sheet and, upon information and belief, other large unsecured creditors support the settlement as implemented through the Plan. See In re A&C Properties, 784 F.2d 1377, 1381 (9th Cir.1986) (holding that approval of a settlement requires consideration of the following factors: “(a) [t]he probability of success in the litigation; (b) the difficulties, if any, to be

1 encountered in the matter of collection; (c) the complexity of the litigation involved, and the 2 expense, inconvenience and delay necessarily attending it; (d) the paramount interest of the 3 creditors and a proper deference to their reasonable views in the premises”). The Term Sheet, 4 which forms the basis of the Plan, is a compromise of controversies appropriately made through 5 the Plan pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1123(b)(3).

6 On the Plan Effective Date, the Debtor will be referred to as the “Post-Confirmation 7 Debtor.” Except as otherwise provided for in the Plan, the Post-Confirmation Debtor will acquire 8 all assets and assume all liabilities of the Debtor as restructured under the Plan, except all of the 9 Debtor’s inventory and tangible personal property shall vest in ESP in accordance with the Plan.

10 The Class 1 claim under the Plan is comprised of Eden Roc’s allowed secured claim.
11 The Class 2 claim under the Plan is comprised of Mega’s allowed secured claim. The Class 3 12 claim under the Plan is comprised of ESP’s allowed secured claim on account of the 13 consignment agreement. The Class 4 claim under the Plan is comprised of ESP’s allowed 14 insider non-priority general unsecured claim on account of its prepetition debt acquisition. The 15 Class 5 claims under the Plan are allowed non-insider claims against the Debtor that are not 16 secured by a charge against, or interest in, any of the Debtor’s assets, are not administrative 17 claims, and are not entitled to priority under Bankruptcy Code Section 507(a). Class 6 under the 18 Plan is comprised of Escada Store Services LLC’s equity interests in the Debtor.

19 The Plan also contains non-classified claim holders, as the Bankruptcy Code pre-20 determines their treatment. These non-classified claim categories include: (i) post-petition 21 estate professionals; (ii) other post-petition administrative expense claims; (iii) non-tax priority 22 unsecured claims, primarily for prepetition unpaid wages; and (iv) prepetition priority tax 23 claims.

24 B. Means of Effectuating and Implementing the Plan

25 The Plan will be funded with: (i) Cash on Hand (as defined below) after satisfaction in 26 full of allowed Administrative Claims and Priority Claims, (ii) the Cash Contribution (as defined 27
28

1 below), and (iii) (A) the Bond Proceeds (as defined below) and/or (B) the Bond Cover (as 2 defined below).

3       Mega and ESP are collectively referred to herein as the “Contributing Creditors”. The 4 Contributing Creditors will contribute new cash in an amount equal to $675,000.00 (the “Cash 5 Contribution”) to pay allowed claims against the estate. For the avoidance of doubt, the 6 Contributing Creditors shall contribute additional new cash in excess of the Cash Contribution as 7 necessary to ensure that the GUC Floor is met.<sup>2</sup>

8       The Debtor’s total cash on hand on the Effective Date of the Plan, prior to the funding of 9 the Cash Contribution and excluding the Bond Proceeds or Bond Cover, as applicable, must be 10 no less than $900,000 (the “Cash on Hand”). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the total cash on 11 hand on the Effective Date of the Plan is less than $900,000, then the Contributing Creditors may 12 contribute additional cash necessary to satisfy the GUC Floor.

13       In the event the total amount of estate cash, excluding any Bond Proceeds (defined 14 below) is less than $900,000 at any point before the Effective Date of the Plan, the Contributing 15 Creditors may contribute funds (such funds, collectively, the “Cash Top Up”) to increase the 16 total amount of estate cash to at least $900,000. In the event Cash on Hand exceeds $900,000 on 17 the Effective Date of the Plan, the Contributing Creditors shall be reimbursed the amount of the 18 Cash Top Up from any such excess Cash on Hand.

19       The recovered proceeds (the “Bond Proceeds”) of the Bond Collateral shall be distributed 20 to holders of allowed General Unsecured Claims by no later than May 1, 2023 (the “Distribution 21 Date”). In the event that the recovered Bond Proceeds are less than $1,850,000.00 as of the 22 Distribution Date, the Contributing Creditors may advance such funds as necessary (the “Bond 23 _____

24 <sup>2</sup> “GUC” is an acronym for “general unsecured creditors,” specifically here for Class 5. The 25 “GUC Floor,” shall be no less than $2,600,000, i.e., an amount sufficient to pay each holder of 26 an allowed Class 5 Claim no less than 13 cents on the dollar for Class 5’s aggregate allowed 27 claims, as provided in greater detail in the Plan. Class 5 claims are estimated at $20,000,000. If Class 5 claims exceed $20,000,000 the GUC Floor proportionally must also be greater than $2,600,000 to achieve a 13-cent recovery.

1 Cover") to ensure a total distribution of $1,850,000.00 in Bond Proceeds plus Bond Cover to 2 holders of General Unsecured Claims. If (i) the GUC Floor is met on the Distribution Date, and 3 (ii) the Contributing Creditors advanced the Bond Cover, then any Bond Proceeds received after 4 the date of the Bond Cover shall be the property of the Contributing Creditors. For the 5 avoidance of doubt, the Bond Proceeds shall not be included in the calculation of the amount of 6 Cash on Hand.

7         The Secured Creditors and, subject to obtaining the necessary votes in support of the 8 Plan, the general unsecured creditors agree that $200,000.00 (the "Wind Down Carve Out") of 9 the Cash on Hand may be used to pay the allowed administrative expense claims of professionals 10 retained by the bankruptcy estate for allowed fees and expenses solely to the extent such fees and 11 expenses were incurred to effectuate the Debtor's, Committee's, and Secured Creditors' 12 settlement and obtain confirmation of the Plan. Separate from and in addition to the Wind Down 13 Carve Out, the Secured Creditors agree to pay, outside of the Cash Contribution and use of cash 14 collateral, Debtor's counsel's reasonable fees for the drafting of certain of the "Exit Documents," 15 as that term is defined in the Plan.

16              C. Classification and Treatment of Claims and Interests

17         As required by the Bankruptcy Code, the Plan classifies claims and interests in various 18 classes according to their right to priority. The Plan states whether each class of claims or 19 interests is impaired or unimpaired. The Plan provides the treatment each class will receive.

20              1. Unclassified Claims

21         Certain types of claims are not placed into voting classes; instead they are unclassified.
22 They are not considered impaired and they do not vote on the Plan because they are 23 automatically entitled to specific treatment provided for them in the Bankruptcy Code. As such, 24 the Debtor has not placed the following claims in a class.

25              a. Administrative Expenses

26         Administrative expenses are claims for costs or expenses of administering the Debtor's 27 Bankruptcy Case that are allowed under Bankruptcy Code Section 507(a)(2). The Bankruptcy 28

1 Code requires that all administrative claims be paid on the Plan Effective Date unless a 2 particular claimant agrees to a different treatment. “Administrative Claim” means a claim for 3 costs and expenses of administration allowed under Section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and 4 referred to in Section 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

5 The following chart lists all of the Debtor’s § 507(a)(2) estate professional 6 administrative claims and their treatment under the Plan.

Name	Amount Owed	Treatment
Clerk's Office Fees	$0	Paid in full on the Effective Date
Quarterly Fees to the United States Trustee (“UST”)	$0	The Debtor will be current on quarterly fees by the time of the hearing on plan confirmation.
LNBYG, Bankruptcy Counsel to the Debtor	Up to $43,474 Plus a portion of the “Wind Down Carve Out” for any qualifying fees and expenses  Plus reasonable fees for preparation of certain “Exit Documents,” with such fees to be paid for by the Secured Creditors. 1        Except for estate-professional-administrative-expense claims, all of the Debtor's allowed 2 section 507(a)(2) administrative claims, including for the avoidance of doubt those listed in 3 Exhibit 5 to the Disclosure Statement under the column titled "Proposed Admin Amount," shall 4 be paid in full on the Plan Effective Date, unless a particular claimant agrees to a different 5 treatment.

6                          b. Priority Tax Claims

7        Prepetition priority tax claims include certain unsecured income, employment and other 8 taxes described by Section 507(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 1129(a)(9)(C) of the 9 Bankruptcy Code requires that each holder of such a Section 507(a)(8) priority tax claim receive 10 regular installment payments of a total value, as of the Plan Effective Date, equal to the allowed 11 amount of such allowed tax claims, over a period ending not later than five years after the 12 Petition Date, and not less favorable than other creditors paid under the Plan. Interest rates on 13 these claims are conclusively determined by applicable non-bankruptcy law as of the month that 14 the Plan is confirmed. 11 U.S.C. § 511.

15       Under the Plan, all allowed Section 507(a)(8) priority tax claims under $100,000 will be 16 paid within 15 days of the Plan Effective Date. Interest on the priority tax claims will accrue and 17 be paid at the applicable non-bankruptcy law statutory rate. Unless timely contested under the 18 Plan, a failure by the Debtor to make a payment on the priority tax claims pursuant to the terms 19 of the Plan will be an event of default. If the event of default is not cured within thirty (30) days 20 after service of written notice of default from the taxing authority, then the taxing authority may 21 enforce its applicable remedies by application of non-bankruptcy law in non-bankruptcy court.
22 The chart below indicates all priority tax claims which were either scheduled by the Debtor or 23 asserted by the taxing agencies in timely filed proofs of claim. The inclusion of the claims in 24 the chart below is intended simply to reflect the claims that have been scheduled and/or asserted 25 in timely filed proofs of claim as priority tax claims, and is not intended to be a concession by 26 the Debtor regarding the validity of the amount of any such claims or the classification of such 27 claims as priority tax claims under Section 507(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code.

2. Classified Claims and Interests

a. Non-Tax Pre-Petition Priority Claims

Certain prepetition priority claims that are referred to in Bankruptcy Code Sections 507(a)(4), (5), (6), and (7) are required to be placed in classes. These types of claims are entitled to priority treatment under the Bankruptcy Code as each holder of such an allowed claim must receive cash on the Effective Date equal to the allowed amount of such claim. However, the holder of such an unsecured priority claim may agree to accept deferred cash payments of a value, as of the Effective Date, equal to the allowed amount of such claim. The Debtor's schedules reflect no creditors as holding priority unsecured claims. No creditors filed proofs of claim asserting non-tax priority unsecured claims.

b. Class 1 – Allowed Secured Claim of Eden Roc International, LLC

Class 1 is comprised of Eden Roc's allowed secured claim of $579,025.32, plus accrued interest, fees, and costs. Upon the Plan going effective, Class 1 agrees to receive a distribution of $0 for its Class 1 claim. Class 1 shall have no lien on the Bond Collateral/Proceeds, Cash Contribution, or Cash on Hand. Class 1 will not receive any payments under the Plan or from the estate. Eden Roc shall receive a release as set forth in the Plan in exchange for the waiver of its right to receive any distribution on account of its Class 1 claim. Class 1 is impaired and entitled to vote on the Plan. Class 1 voted to accept the Plan.

<sup>8</sup> On February 1, 2023, the Court signed an order approving a stipulation for claim #42 to be withdrawn with prejudice [ECF 436].

1                   c. Class 2 – Allowed Secured Claim of Mega International, LLC

2                   Class 2 is comprised of Mega's allowed secured claim of $1,506,953.00, plus accrued 3 interest, fees, and costs. Upon the Plan going effective, Class 2 agrees to receive a distribution of 4 $0 for its Class 2 claim. Class 2 shall have no lien on the Bond Collateral/Proceeds, Cash 5 Contribution, or Cash on Hand. Class 2 will not receive any payments under the Plan or from the 6 estate. Mega shall receive a release as set forth in the Plan in exchange for the waiver of its right to 7 receive any distribution on account of its Class 2 claim. Class 2 is impaired and entitled to vote on 8 the Plan. Class 2 voted to accept the Plan.

9                   d. Class 3 – Allowed Claim of Escada Sourcing and Production LLC Related 10                   to Consignment

11                  Class 3 is comprised of ESP's allowed secured claim for unpaid consignment fees under a 12 true consignment arrangement between ESP and the Debtor. Class 3 has a prepetition secured 13 claim in the amount of no less than $9,130,457.00. To the extent ESP is a creditor, all inventory 14 held by Debtor and proceeds thereof are the collateral for ESP's Class 3 claim. Upon the Plan 15 going effective, Class 3 agrees to receive a distribution of $0 for its Class 3 claim. Class 3 shall 16 have no lien on the Bond Proceeds, Cash Contribution, or Cash on Hand. Class 3 will not receive 17 any payments under the Plan or from the estate. ESP shall receive a release as set forth in the Plan 18 in exchange for the waiver of its right to receive any distribution on account of its Class 3 claim.
19 Class 3 is impaired and entitled to vote on the Plan. Class 3 voted to accept the Plan.

20                  e. Class 4 – Allowed Claim of Escada Sourcing and Production LLC Related 21                   to Debt Acquisition

22                  Class 4 is comprised of ESP's allowed unsecured claim for $11,507,641.10. Upon the Plan 23 going effective, Class 4 agrees to receive a distribution of $0 for its Class 4 claim. Class 4 shall 24 have no lien on the Bond Proceeds, Cash Contribution, or Cash on Hand. Class 4 will not receive
25 any payments under the Plan or from the estate. ESP shall receive a release as set forth in the Plan 26 in exchange for the waiver of its right to receive any distribution on account of its Class 4 claim.
27 Class 4 is impaired and entitled to vote on the Plan. Class 4 voted to accept the Plan.

1                   f. Class 5 – Allowed Claims of Non-Insider General Unsecured Creditors

2                   The Class 5 claims under the Plan are comprised of each allowed claim against the 3 Debtor held by a non-insider that is not secured by a charge against, or interest in, any of the 4 Debtor's assets, that is not an administrative claim, or otherwise not entitled to priority under 5 Bankruptcy Code Section 507(a). The estimated amount of asserted Class 5 claims is 6 $20,616,904.66. The Claims Chart attached as Exhibit 2 to the Disclosure Statement and Plan 7 shows all claims which were scheduled by the Debtor and all proofs of claim which have been 8 filed against the Debtor that are in Class 5, and estimated prorated recovery.

9                   In full and final satisfaction of each, any, and all of their claims against the Debtor, on 10 the Plan Effective Date, each holder of an allowed Claim in Class 5 will receive its pro rata 11 share of the “GUC Distribution,” which shall be no less than the “GUC Floor,” which shall be 12 no less than an amount sufficient to pay each holder of an allowed Class 5 Claim no less than 13 13 cents on the dollar for its aggregate allowed claims, as provided in greater detail below. In the 14 event of a default, the Debtor’s bankruptcy case shall be converted to chapter 7.

15                  The Plan’s treatment of Class 5 is the result of an extensively and hard-fought negotiated 16 global settlement among the Debtor, the Committee, and the Secured Creditors.

17                  On the Plan Effective Date, the total amount of value available for distribution to holders 18 of allowed General Unsecured Claims shall be no less than $2,600,000 (the “GUC Floor”) and 19 may be a greater sum (the “GUC Distribution”), which amount shall be distributed pro rata to 20 the holders of allowed general unsecured creditors no later than May 1, 2023 (the “Distribution 21 Date”). The GUC Distribution will consist of: (i) Cash on Hand after satisfaction in full of 22 allowed Administrative Claims and Priority Claims, (ii) the Cash Contribution, and (iii) either 23 (A) the Bond Proceeds or (B) the Bond Cover.

24                  The GUC Floor is predicated on allowed General Unsecured Claims totaling not more 25 than an aggregate amount of $20,000,000. If, as of the effective date, the total allowed amount 26 of General Unsecured Claims exceeds, in aggregate, $20,000,000, then the amount of the GUC 27 Floor shall increase to the amount necessary to provide all allowed General Unsecured Claims a 1 distribution equal to 13.0%.

2           g. Class of Interest Holders

3           Class 6 is comprised of the equity interests in the Debtor, held by the Debtor's sole 4 member, Escada Store Services LLC. Interest holders are the parties who hold an ownership 5 interest (i.e., equity interest) in the Debtor. Class 6 is unimpaired, and the Class 6 interest 6 holder is conclusively presumed to have voted to accept the Plan by operation of law.

7           The Class 6 equity interests will retain its rights and interests without impairment. Class 8 6 receives no payments on account of its equity interests under the Plan. In compliance with 11 9 U.S.C. § 1123(a)(6), the Debtor's charter, bylaws, and/or operating agreement will be amended 10 to provide for the inclusion of a provision prohibiting the issuance of nonvoting equity 11 securities, and providing, as to the several classes of securities possessing voting power, an 12 appropriate distribution of such power among classes.

13           III.

14           THIS COURT HAS JURISDICTION OVER THE CONFIRMATION OF THE PLAN

15           This court has jurisdiction over the Debtor's bankruptcy case pursuant to 28 U.S.C.
16 §157(a). Venue of the cases is appropriate in the Central District of California pursuant to 28 17 U.S.C. §1408. Confirmation is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §157(b)(2)(a) and (l).

9 B. The Plan Complies with All of the Applicable Provisions of Sections 1129(a) of the 10 Bankruptcy Code

11 1. Section 1129(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code

12 Section 1129(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a court may confirm a plan of 13 reorganization only if "the plan complies with the applicable provisions of this title." The 14 phrase "applicable provisions" has been interpreted to mean Sections 1122 and 1123 of the 15 Bankruptcy Code, which govern the classification of claims and interests and the contents of a 16 plan of reorganization. Kane v. Johns-Manville Corp., 843 F.2d 636, 648-49 (2d Cir.1988); 5 17 COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶ 1129.02 (Alan N. Resnick & Henry J. Sommer eds., 15th ed. rev.).

18 1.1 Section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code 19 governs the classification of claims and interests. Section 1122(a) requires that a plan "place a 20 claim or an interest in a particular class only if such claim or interest is substantially similar to 21 the other claims or interests in such class."

22 The Plan designates five classes of claims and one class of interest holders. Classes 1, 2, 23 and 3 are comprised of the allowed secured claims of Eden Roc, Mega, and ESP, respectively, 24 and each is in a different class because each creditor class has a different lien priority; 25 additionally, Eden Roc and Mega have blanket liens, while ESP's lien is more limited in scope.
26 Class 4 is comprised of the general unsecured claim held by ESP, which is separately classified 27 by way of a voluntary subordination as insider claims to non-insider claims in Class 5, as part of 28

1 the heavily negotiated plan terms among the Debtor, the Secured Creditors, and the Committee.
2 Class 5 is a separate class of all allowed non-insider general unsecured claims. Class 6 is 3 separately classified as the equity interest holder because it does not hold a creditor claim, and it 4 is the only party in interest holding equity.

5 Based on the foregoing classification of claims and interests, the Plan complies with the 6 provisions of Section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code.

7 1.2 Section 1123(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Plan complies with the seven (7) 8 mandatory provisions of Section 1123(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

9 Section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that a plan of reorganization 10 designate classes of claims other than claims of the kind specified in Section 507(a)(2), (3) and 11 (8) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Plan satisfies the requirements of Section 1123(a)(1) of the 12 Bankruptcy Code by designating all classes of claims other than claims specified in Sections 13 507(a)(2), (3) and (8) of the Bankruptcy Code.

14 Section 1123(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that a plan of reorganization specify 15 those classes of claims or interests that are not impaired, and Section 1123(a)(3) of the 16 Bankruptcy Code requires that a plan specify those classes of claims or interests that are 17 impaired. The Plan satisfies both of these requirements by indicating whether each class under 18 the Plan is impaired and what treatment each class will receive.

19 Section 1123(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that a plan provide the same 20 treatment for each claim or interest of a particular class, unless the holder of a particular claim 21 or interest agrees to less favorable treatment. The Plan satisfies this requirement as no claim 22 holder or interest holder is receiving treatment under the Plan different from any other claim 23 holder or interest holder in the same class. Thus, the Plan satisfies the requirement of section 24 1123(a)(4).

25 Section 1123(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that a plan provide adequate means 26 for the Plan's implementation and sets forth a non-exclusive list of methods of doing so. In 27 general terms, §1123(a)(5) is an empowering statute meant to enhance the ability of the 28

1 proponent to deal with the property of the estate by providing for preemption of conflicting state
2 laws. Universal Cooperatives, Inc. v. FCX Inc (In re FCS, Inc.), 85 F.2d 1149, 1155 (4th Cir.
3 1988), cert denied, 489 U.S. 1011 (1989). The methods of plan implementation as set forth in 4 §1123(a)(5) are self-executing, so a plan of reorganization may propose acts to implement the 5 plan notwithstanding contrary non-bankruptcy agreements. Pacific Gas & Electric Co. v. Calif
6 on behalf of the Calif. Dept. of Toxic Substances. 350 F.3d 932, 937 (9th Cir. 2003), cert.
7 denied, 543 U.S. 956 (2004). The examples of adequate means for implementation of a plan set 8 forth in §1123(a)(5) are illustrative and do not exclude or limit other means of implementation.
9 P.G. & E., 350 F.3d at 937.

10 The Plan describes the means for the Plan's implementation. Specifically, the Plan 11 provides for its implementation by way of, inter alia, Sections 1123(a)(5)(A) and (B). The 12 Debtor will implement the Plan through a settlement, cash infusion from the Contributing 13 Creditors, business operations, and transfer of personal property to ESP. The Plan meets the 14 requirements of Section 1123(a)(5).

15 Section 1123(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that a plan provide for the inclusion 16 in the charter of a corporate debtor a provision prohibiting the issuance of nonvoting equity 17 securities, and providing, as to the several classes of securities possessing voting power, an 18 appropriate distribution of such power among classes. The Plan specifically meets this 19 requirement in the treatment of the equity interest class.

20 Section 1123(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that a plan contain only provisions 21 that are consistent with the interests of creditors and equity security holders and with public 22 policy with respect to the manner of selection of any officer, director, or trustee. The Plan does 23 not contain any provisions that offend section 1123(a)(7) and, accordingly, complies with this 24 subsection.

25 1.3 Section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 1123(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy 26 Code provides that a plan may impair or leave any class of claims, whether secured or 27
28

1 unsecured, or of interests unimpaired under the plan. The Plan designates that classes 1, 2, 3, 4, 2 and 5 are impaired and that class 6 is not impaired.

3 Section 1123(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code specifies that, subject to Section 365, a plan
4 may provide for the assumption, rejection, or assignment of any executory contract or unexpired
5 lease not previously rejected. Section II.B.12 of the Plan and Exhibit 4 thereto, provide the 6 assumption and rejection of executory contracts and prepetition unexpired leases subject to this 7 provision.

8 Section 1123(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code specifies that a plan may provide for “the 9 settlement or adjustment of any claim or interest belonging to the debtor or to the estate,” and/or 10 “the retention and enforcement by the debtor, by the trustee, or by a representative of the estate 11 appointed for such purpose, of any such claim or interest.” As set forth in sections II.B.5 & 6 of 12 the Plan, the Plan provides that all claims, claim objections, causes of action and avoidance 13 actions of the Debtor and its estate are preserved by the Plan, and the Post-Confirmation Debtor 14 shall have sole and full power and authority to settle, adjust, retain, enforce, or abandon any 15 claim, cause of action, or avoidance actions as the sole representative of the Debtor’s estate 16 under section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, regardless of whether such claims, 17 causes of action, or avoidance actions were commenced prior or subsequent to the Plan 18 Effective Date.

19 Moreover, the Plan itself is a compromise of controversies among the Debtor, 20 Committee, and Secured Creditors, for all of the reasons set forth in the Plan, Term Sheet, and 21 Committee Support Letter. Settlement is set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a), which provides in 22 pertinent part that “[o]n motion by the trustee and after hearing on notice to creditors ... the court 23 may approve a compromise or settlement.” The decision of whether a compromise should be 24 accepted or rejected lies within the sound discretion of the Court. In re Carson, 82 B.R. 847, 25 852 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1987; In re Hydronic Enterprise, Inc., 58 B.R. 363, 365 (Bankr. D. R.I.
26 1986); In re Mobile Air Drilling Co., Inc., 53 B.R. 605, 607 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1985); Knowles 27 v. Putterbaugh (In re Hallet), 33 B.R. 564, 565 (Bankr. D. Me. 1983).

1        “The bankruptcy court has great latitude in approving compromise agreements.” 2 Woodson v. Fireman's Fund Ins. Co. (In re Woodson), 839 F.2d 610, 620 (9th Cir.1988). “The 3 purpose of a compromise agreement is to allow the [debtor in possession] and the creditors to 4 avoid the expenses and burdens associated with litigating sharply contested and dubious claims.” 5 Martin v. Kane (In re A & C Properties), 784 F.2d 1377, 1380-81 (9th Cir.1986), cert. denied 6 479 U.S. 854 (1986). Accordingly, in approving a settlement agreement, the Court need not 7 conduct an exhaustive investigation of the claims sought to be compromised. See, United States 8 v. Alaska National Bank (In re Walsh Constr., Inc.), 669 F.2d 1325, 1328 (9th Cir.1982). Rather, 9 it is sufficient that the Court find that the settlement was negotiated in good faith and is 10 reasonable, fair, and equitable. See In re A & C Properties, supra, 784 F.2d at 1381.

11        The Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit has identified the following factors for 12 consideration in determining whether a proposed settlement agreement is reasonable, fair, and 13 equitable:

14                (a)      the probability of success in the litigation; 15                (b)      the difficulties, if any, to be encountered in the matter of collection; 16                (c)      the complexity of the litigation involved, and the expense, inconvenience, and 17 delay necessarily attending it; and 18                (d)      the paramount interest of the creditors and a proper deference to their reasonable 19 views in the premises.

20 In re A & C Properties, supra, 784 F.2d at 1381 (the “A & C Factors”).

21        A court should not substitute its own judgment for the judgment of the trustee or the 22 debtor in possession. Matter of Carla Leather, Inc., 44 B.R. 457, 465 (Bankr.S.D.N.Y.1984). A 23 court, in reviewing a proposed settlement, is not to decide the numerous questions of law and 24 fact but rather to canvass the issues to determine whether the settlement falls below the lowest 25 point in the range of reasonableness. In re W.T. Grant & Co., 699 F.2d 599, 608 (2nd Cir.1983),

2 that compromises are favored in bankruptcy.” In re Lee Way Holding Co., 120 B.R. 881, 891
3 (Bankr.S.D. Ohio 1990). Here, among other things, the Debtor believes the settlement satisfies 4 applicable Ninth Circuit law because (i) any potential litigation claims the estate holds against 5 the Secured Creditors or other insiders are risky, complex and would be extremely expensive and 6 time consuming to pursue, (ii) the Plan settlement provides for a prompt, certain cash recovery to 7 creditors and thereby avoids the risk and difficulty in collecting any judgment(s) the estate might 8 obtain against the Secured Creditors through protracted litigation, and (iii) two of the Debtor’s<sup>1</sup> 9 largest unsecured creditors signed the Term Sheet and, upon information and belief, other large 10 unsecured creditors support the settlement as implemented through the Plan. Therefore, the 11 compromise set forth in the Plan should be approved and confirmed.

12       Section 1123(b)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code specifies that a plan may “provide for the sale 13 of all or substantially all of the property of the estate, and the distribution of the proceeds of such 14 sale among holders of claims or interests.” The Plan does not contemplate the sale of any assets.

15       Section 1123(b)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code permits a plan to modify the rights of holders 16 of secured claims. The Secured Creditors’ rights are modified as set forth in Classes 1, 2, and 3.

17       Subsection 1123(b)(6) is a catch-all category for “any other appropriate provision not 18 inconsistent with the applicable provisions of this title.” The Debtor submits that the Plan does not 19 contain provisions inconsistent with the applicable provisions of title 11.

20       Based upon the foregoing, the Plan complies with all of the provisions of Section 1122 21 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code and, therefore, complies with Section 1129(a)(1) of the 22 Bankruptcy Code.

23       2.       Section 1129(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 1129(a)(2) of the 24 Bankruptcy Code provides that a court may confirm a plan only if “[t]he proponent of the plan 25 complies with applicable provisions of the title.” The “principal purpose of 11 U.S.C. §
26 1129(a)(2) is to ensure that the proponents have complied with the requirements of 11 U.S.C. § 27 1125 in the solicitation of acceptances to the plan,” In re Texaco, Inc., 84 B.R. 893, 906-07

1 (Bankr.S.D.N.Y.1988), and with the requirements of Section 1121 and 1127 of the Bankruptcy
2 Code. In re Downtown Inv. Club III, 89 B.R. 59, 65 (9th Cir.B.A.P.1988).

3       2.1     Section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 1121© of the Bankruptcy Code
4 provides that “[a]ny party in interest including the debtor . . . may file a plan . . .” The Plan is 5 proposed by the Debtor, which is a party in interest in this case. The requirements of Section 6 1121 have been met.

7       2.2     Section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 1125(b) of the Bankruptcy Code 8 provides, in part, that:

9                  An acceptance or rejection of a plan may not be solicited after the 10 commencement of the case under this title from a holder of a claim 11 or interest with respect to such claim or interest, unless, at that time 12 or before such solicitation, there is transmitted to such holder the 13 plan or a summary of the plan, and a written disclosure statement 14 approved, after notice and hearing, by the Court as containing 15 adequate information.

16                  11 U.S.C. § 1125(b). At a hearing held on January 25, 2023, the Court approved the Debtor’s 17 Disclosure Statement describing the Plan and found that the Disclosure Statement contains 18 adequate information pursuant to Section 1125(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. On or about 19 February 3, 2023, a copy of the Disclosure Statement and Plan and notice of the hearing on the 20 confirmation of the Plan, together with ballots for creditors to use to vote on the Plan, were sent 21 to each known party in interest in the Debtor’s case. The Debtor did not solicit acceptance of a 22 plan prior to these events. The Debtor has complied with the provisions of Section 1125 of the 23 Bankruptcy Code.

24       2.3     Section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code sets 25 forth certain requirements that a plan proponent must satisfy in order to modify a plan. Section 26 1127(b) of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes a plan proponent to modify the plan at any time 27 before confirmation of the plan provided the plan as modified satisfies the requirements of 28 Sections 1122 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code. As of the filing of this Motion, the Debtor has not modified the Plan. The Plan meets the requirements of section 1127.

1           3.     Section 1129(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code.   Section 1129(a)(3) of the 2 Bankruptcy Code provides that a court may confirm a plan only if the plan is proposed “in good 3 faith and not by any means forbidden by law.” A plan is proposed in good faith where it 4 achieves a result consistent with the objectives and purposes of the Bankruptcy Code. See, e.g., 5 In re Sylmar Plaza, L.P. 314 F.2d 1070, 1074 (9th Cir. 2002).

6           The Plan has been proposed in good faith by the Debtor. The Plan is not proposed by 7 any means forbidden by law. The Plan is the result of a highly negotiated Term Sheet among 8 the Debtor, Secured Creditors, and Committee, after a full-day, in-person mediation with the 9 Honorable Martin Barash, United States Bankruptcy Judge for the Central District of California, 10 followed by multiple settlement discussions by telephone and videoconference in the following 11 weeks. The Plan satisfies the requirements of §1129(a)(3).

12          4.     Section 1129(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.   Section 1129(a)(4) of the 13 Bankruptcy Code provides that a court may confirm a plan only if “[a]ny payment made or to be 14 made by the proponent, by the debtor, or by a person issuing securities or acquiring property 15 under the plan, for services or for costs and expenses in connection with the case, or in 16 connection with the plan and incident to the case, has been approved by, or is subject to the 17 approval of, the Court as reasonable.” Pursuant to section II.A.1.a the Plan, the Bankruptcy 18 Court must approve all professional fees and expenses before they may be paid.

19          5.     Section 1129(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code.   Section 1129(a)(5)(A)(i) of the 20 Bankruptcy Code provides that a court may confirm a plan only if the plan proponent discloses 21 “the identity and affiliations of any individual proposed to serve, after confirmation of the plan, 22 as a director, officer or voting trustee of the debtor . . . or a successor to the debtor under the 23 plan.” The Plan discloses such identities and affiliations in Section II.B.3 of the Plan.

24          Section 1129(a)(5)(A)(ii) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that the appointment to, or 25 continuance in, such office of such individual be “consistent with the best interests of creditors 26 and equity holders and with public policy.” In re Produce Hawaii, Inc., 41 B.R. 301, 304 27 (Bankr.D.Hawaii 1984); In re Parks Lumber Co., Inc., 19 B.R. 285, 291 (Bankr.W.D.La.1982).

28

1 The Debtor submits that public policy favors the continuation of the Debtor's current 2 management, which is qualified based on the prepetition and post-petition track record in the 3 Debtor's case.

4 Section 1129(a)(5)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a Court may confirm a plan 5 only if the plan proponent discloses "the identity of any insider that will be employed or retained 6 by the reorganized debtor, and the nature of any compensation for such insider." The Plan 7 discloses such identities and affiliations in Section II.B.3 of the Plan. The Debtor's sole 8 member, Escada Store Services LLC, will manage the Post-Confirmation Debtor for no 9 compensation. The Plan satisfies the requirements of §1129(a)(5).

10 6. Section 1129(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 1129(a)(6) of the 11 Bankruptcy Code requires that after confirmation of a plan, any governmental regulatory 12 commission with jurisdiction "over the rates of the debtor has approved any rate change 13 provided for in the plan ..." This Section of the Bankruptcy Code is inapplicable to the Debtor.

14 7. Section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 1129(a)(7)(A) of the 15 Bankruptcy Code (commonly referred to as the "best interest of creditors test" and herein the 16 "Best Interest Test") requires that, with respect to each impaired class under the Plan, each 17 member of the class must either accept the Plan or receive under the Plan property having a 18 value, as of the Effective Date, that is not less than the amount that such claim holder would 19 receive if the Debtor's chapter 11 case were converted to a chapter 7 liquidation case. Thus, for 20 the Court to be able to confirm the Plan, the Court must find that all creditors and interest 21 holders who do not accept the Plan will receive at least as much under the Plan as such holders 22 would receive under a chapter 7 liquidation of the Debtor. The Debtor maintains that this 23 requirement is clearly met.

24 The impaired classes under the Plan consist of classes 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5. The Debtor must 25 therefore satisfy the "best interest of creditors test" with respect to members of classes 1, 2, 3, 4, 26 and 5 that do not vote to accept the Plan. All creditors in Classes 1, 2, 3, and 4 voted to accept 27 the Plan. Accordingly, this Best Interest Test focuses on the creditors in Class 5.
28

1        In a hypothetical chapter 7 liquidation, the Debtor projects that Class 5 would receive 2 less than the 13% GUC Floor recovery set forth in the Plan. The GUC Floor of $2,600,000 is 3 premised on (1) $900,000 Cash on Hand (prior to satisfaction of administrative claims and 4 priority claims up to any agreed limits, if applicable), (2) $1,850,000 Bond Proceeds and/or 5 Bond Cover from the Contributing Creditors, and (3) $675,000 Cash Contribution from the 6 Contributing Creditors. Without the Plan and the settlement reflected therein, there will be no 7 Cash Contribution, immediately reducing the estate funds to $2,750,000. In the absence of the 8 settlement encapsulated in the Plan, administrative expense estate professional claims in this 9 chapter 11 case would exceed $1,000,000, immediately reducing estate funds to $1,750,000. In 10 the absence of the settlement encapsulated in the Plan, the Contributing Creditors will not be 11 fronting the Bond Cover of $1,850,000, meaning that the hypothetical chapter 7 estate would 12 already be in an administratively insolvent starting position with insufficient cash on hand to 13 pay chapter 7 estate professionals and also pay chapter 11 estate professionals.

14        In a hypothetical chapter 7 case, the chapter 7 trustee would hire his/her own counsel and 15 undertake an investigation of the Bankruptcy Case and the estate, then bring lawsuits, adding a 16 new layer of administrative expenses to the $1,000,000 of chapter 11 expenses already incurred.
17 All of these administrative expenses must be paid before payments can be made to Class 5. The 18 formula payment to the chapter 7 trustee pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 326(a) would 19 also significantly reduce the funds available for distribution to Class 5 creditors. Because 20 secured creditors are paid before unsecured creditors, the chapter 7 trustee would also have to 21 succeed in disallowing the claims held by the Secured Creditors to realize a dividend to Class 5.
22 Whatever funds might be in the estate would be used as a litigation fund to bring claims against 23 the Secured Creditors in an effort to defeat their multi-million-dollar secured claims and post-24 petition administrative claims, collect any judgments against them, and then pay those proceeds 25 to the holders of general unsecured claims only after the chapter 7 and chapter 11 administrative 26 expense professional fees had been paid in full. Under these circumstances, the Debtor submits 27 that the minimum 13% recovery provided by the GUC Floor to Class 5 under the Plan passes the 28

1 Best Interest of Creditors Test because it provides at least as much (and certainly much more) 2 than would be achieved in a hypothetical chapter 7 liquidation.

3       8.     Section 1129(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code.   Section 1129(a)(8) of the 4 Bankruptcy Code provides that a court may confirm a plan only if “[w]ith respect to each class 5 of claims or interests: (A) such class has accepted the plan; or (B) such class is not impaired 6 under the plan.” Section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that “[a] class of claims has 7 accepted a plan if such plan has been accepted by creditors . . . that hold at least two-thirds in 8 amount and more than one-half in number of the allowed claims of such class held by creditors .
9 . . that have accepted or rejected such plan.” Only votes actually cast are counted. In re M.
10 Long Arabians, 103 B.R. 211, 216 (9th Cir.B.A.P.1989).

11       Here, Class 6 is not impaired and is deemed to have accepted the Plan without voting 12 pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1126(g), thereby meeting the requirements of 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(8).
13 Classes 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 are impaired, and all of those classes voted overwhelmingly to accept 14 the Plan, as shown in the concurrently and separately filed plan voting tabulation summary.

15       9.     Section 1129(a)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code. According to section 1129(a)(9) of 16 the Bankruptcy Code, plan confirmation requires that each holder of a priority claim under 17 Section 507(a)(2) or 507(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code must receive cash equal to the allowed 18 amount of such claim or agree to a different treatment.

19       Section 1129(a)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a court may confirm a plan only 20 if the plan complies with the following:

21           a.     Each holder of a priority claim under Section 507(a)(2) or 507(a)(3) of 22 the Bankruptcy Code must receive cash equal to the allowed amount of such claim or agree to a 23 different treatment.

24           b.     Each holder of a priority claim under Sections 507(a)(1), (4), (5), (6) or 25 (7) of the Bankruptcy Code must receive, on account of such claim:

26                  i.     deferred cash payments of a value, as of the effective date, equal 27 to the allowed amount of such claim, if such class has accepted the plan; or 28

ii. cash on the effective date equal to the allowed amount of such claim, if such class has not accepted the plan.

c. Each holder of a priority claim under Section 507(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code must receive, on account of such claim, deferred cash payments, over a period not exceeding five years after the Petition Date, of a value, as of the effective date of the plan, equal to the allowed amount of such claim.

Under the Plan, each holder of an allowed administrative claim (i.e., claims arising under Section 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code) will be paid in full upon the Effective Date, except that estate professionals who were employed in the Case will not be paid until their fees and expenses are approved by the Court following the filing of final fee applications by such professionals, and subject to the Term Sheet's caps set forth in the Plan. With respect to the administrative expense claims of Mega and ESP, they have agreed to receive $0. The Debtor is not aware of any prepetition priority claims under 11 U.S.C. § 507(a) except as set forth below:

Claimant	Proof of Claim No.	Claim Amount
County of Los Angeles	9, as amended	$0 <sup>9</sup>
Cal. Franchise Tax Board	17	$800.00
IRS	2, as amended	$500.00
Cal. Empl. Dev. Dep’t	N/A	$0
NYC Dept. of Finance	39	$0 <sup>10</sup>
U.S. Customs and Border Protection	42	$0
TOTAL		$1,300.00

Under the Plan, all allowed Section 507(a)(8) priority tax claims under $100,000 will be paid within 15 days of the Plan Effective Date. Interest on the priority tax claims will accrue and be paid at the applicable non-bankruptcy law statutory rate.

Based upon the foregoing, the Plan satisfies the requirements of Section 1129(a)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code.

1           10. Section 1129(a)(10) of the Bankruptcy Code.

2           Section 1129(a)(10) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a court may confirm a plan 3 only if “at least one class of claims that is impaired under the plan has accepted the plan, 4 determined without including any acceptance of the plan by any insider.” Section 1126(c) of the 5 Bankruptcy Code provides that “[a] class of claims has accepted a plan if such plan has been 6 accepted by creditors . . . that hold at least two-thirds in amount and more than one-half in 7 number of the allowed claims of such class held by creditors . . . that have accepted or rejected 8 such plan.” Class 5 is impaired and is comprised of creditors holdings non-insider general 9 unsecured claims. As shown in the separately and concurrently filed plan ballot voting 10 tabulation and summary, Class 5 voted to accept the Plan. Therefore, the requirement of § 11 1129(a)(10) has been met.

12          11. Section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 1129(a)(11) of the 13 Bankruptcy Code provides that a court may confirm a plan only if “[c]onfirmation of the plan is 14 not likely to be followed by the liquidation, or the need for further financial reorganization, of 15 the debtor or any successor to the debtor under the plan, unless such liquidation or reorganization 16 is proposed in the plan.” The purpose of §1129(a)(11) is to prevent confirmation of visionary 17 schemes which promise creditors and equity security holders more under a proposed plan than 18 the debtor can possibly obtain after confirmation. In re Linda Vista Cinemas, L.L.C., 442 B.R.

19 724, 737 (Bankr.D.Ariz.2010), quoting In re Pizza of Haw., Inc., 761 F.2d 1374, 1382 (9th 20 Cir.1985) (quoting 5 Collier on Bankruptcy ¶ 1129.02[11], at 1129–34 (15th ed. 1984)).

21          In order to meet this feasibility standard, a debtor need only demonstrate that the plan has 22 a “reasonable probability of success.” United States v. Energy Resources Co., Inc., 495 U.S.
23 545, 549 (1990); In re Acequia, Inc., 787 F.2d 1352, 1364 (9th Cir.1986); In re Pike’s Peak 24 Water Co., 779 F.2d 1456, 1460 (10th Cir.1985). Bankruptcy courts have set forth six factors to 25 help courts determine feasibility: (1) adequacy of the debtor’s capital structure; (2) the earning 26 power of the debtor’s business; (3) economic conditions; (4) the ability of the debtor’s 27 management; (5) the probability of the continuation of the same management; and (6) any other 28

1 related matter which determines the prospects of a sufficiently successful operation to enable 2 performance of the provisions of the plan. In re M&S Assoc., Ltd., 138 B.R. 845, 849
3 (Bankr.W.D.Tex.1992). However, in analyzing feasibility, the court need find only a reasonable 4 assurance of commercial viability, not guaranteed success. In re Prudential Energy Co., 58 B.R.
5 857, 862 (Bankr.S.D.N.Y.1986).

6 There are at least two important aspects of a feasibility analysis. The first aspect 7 considers whether the Debtor will have enough cash on hand on the Plan Effective Date to pay 8 all the claims and expenses which are entitled to be paid on such date. Here, the Plan is feasible 9 because it is contemplated to make payments by no later than a Distribution Date of May 1, 10 2023, within approximately two weeks of an outside Plan Effective Date of April 15, 2023, to be 11 funded by (1) Cash On Hand, (2) Bond Proceeds or Bond Cover, and (3) the Cash Contribution.
12 The effect of the foregoing is that the Plan payments will be frontloaded so that there will be 13 little to no obstacles to substantially consummating the Plan by May 1, 2023. Additionally, the 14 Debtor, the Committee, the Secured Creditors, Debtor's general bankruptcy counsel, and 15 Committee's general bankruptcy counsel have agreed to a fixed Wind Down Carve Out from the 16 Cash on Hand in the amount of $200,000, capped administrative estate professional claims, and 17 additional contributions by the Secured Creditors as needed to ensure that the GUC Floor is met 18 by the Distribution Date.

19 The second aspect considers whether the Post-Confirmation Debtor will have enough 20 cash over the life of the Plan to make the required Plan payments. This consideration does not 21 apply here because the Plan contemplates almost immediate substantial consummation and 22 payment within weeks of the Effective Date and by no later than May 1, 2023. Accordingly, the 23 Debtor submits that the Plan is feasible and meets the requirements of 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(11).

24 12. Section 1129(a)(12) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 1129(a)(12) of the 25 Bankruptcy Code provides that a court may confirm a plan only if “[a]ll fees payable under 26 section 1930 of title 28, as determined by the court at the hearing on confirmation of the plan, 27 have been paid or the plan provides for the payment of all such fees on the effective date of the 28

1 plan.” The Debtor is in compliance with all of the fee requirements set forth in section 1930 of 2 title 28. The Debtor has timely paid all fees or costs owing to the Clerk of the Court or the 3 Office of the United States Trustee. The Plan also provides for payment of future applicable 4 fees. Accordingly, the requirements of Section 1129(a)(12) are met.

5       13. Section 1129(a)(13) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 1129(a)(13) of the 6 Bankruptcy Code provides that a court may confirm a plan only if “[t]he plan provides for the 7 continuation after its effective date of payment of all retiree benefits . . . for the duration of the 8 period the debtor has obligated itself to provide such benefits.” This provision is inapplicable as 9 the Debtor has no retiree benefit obligations.

10      14. Section 1129(a)(14) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 1129(a)(14) does not apply 11 to the Debtor because it does not have any domestic support obligations.

12      15. Section 1129(a)(15) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 1129(a)(15) does not apply 13 because the Debtor is not an individual.

14      16. Section 1129(a)(16) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 1129(a)(16) of the 15 Bankruptcy Code requires that “[a]ll transfers of property of the plan shall be made in 16 accordance with any applicable provisions of nonbankruptcy law that govern the transfer of 17 property by a corporation or trust that is not a moneyed, business, or commercial corporation or 18 trust.” This section applies to non-profit corporations. 7 COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶ 19 1129.02[16] (Alan N. Resnick & Henry J. Sommer eds., 15th ed. rev.). This subsection is 20 inapplicable to the Debtor.

21           V. REVISION AT THE REQUEST OF THE UNITED STATES TRUSTEE

22       At the request of the United States Trustee, the Debtor has agreed to revise the language 23 of the exculpation clause in section II.B.10 of the Plan as follows, with underlined font showing 24 the revision requested, to conform to the requirements of Blixseth v. Credit Suisse, 961 F.3d 25 1074 (9th Cir.2020):

26 27       To the maximum extent permitted by law, not any one of the Debtor, the 28 Post-Confirmation Debtor, the Committee, Brookfield, Simon Property, Eden Roc International LLC, Escada Sourcing and Production LLC, Mega

1 International LLC, each of its/their management, each of its/their 2 professionals employed or retained by any of them, whether or not by 3 Bankruptcy Court order (collectively, the “Exculpated Parties”), shall have 4 or incur any liability to any person or entity for any act taken or omission 5 made in good faith in connection with or related to the formulation and 6 implementation of the Plan, or a contract, instrument, release, or other 7 agreement or document created in connection therewith, the solicitation of 8 acceptances for or confirmation of the Plan, or the consummation and 9 implementation of the Plan and the transactions contemplated therein, 10 including the distribution of estate funds, except for acts of willful misconduct or gross negligence as determined by a final order by a court of competent jurisdiction.

11 For the avoidance of doubt the exculpation and release applies 12 only to the events of the Debtor’s case and Plan as set forth in the 13 preceding paragraph. This is not – and shall not be construed to be – a 14 release or exculpation of the Exculpated Parties for matters outside of the 15 Debtor’s case and Plan as set forth in the preceding paragraph.

16 VI. CONTRACT AND LEASE ASSUMPTION OR REJECTION

17 A. Standard for Assumption or Rejection

18 Section 1123(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code specifies that, subject to Section 365, a plan
19 may provide for the assumption, rejection, or assignment of any executory contract or unexpired 20 lease not previously rejected. Section II.B.12 of the Plan and Exhibit 4 thereto, provide the 21 assumption and rejection of executory contracts and prepetition unexpired leases subject to this 22 provision, to the extent not already assumed or rejected.

23 Barring exceptions not herein relevant, Section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code 24 authorizes a debtor in possession, “subject to the Court’s approval, . . . [to] assume or reject any 25 executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor.” A debtor in possession may assume or 26 reject executory contracts for the benefit of the estate. In re Klein Sleep Products, Inc., 78 F.3d 27 18, 25 (2d. Cir. 1996); In re Central Fla. Metal Fabrication, Inc., 190 B.R. 119, 124 (Bankr.
N.D. Fla. 1995); In re Gucci, 193 B.R. 411, 415 (S.D.N.Y.1996). In reviewing a debtor in possession’s decision to assume or reject an executory contract, a bankruptcy court should apply the “business judgment test” to determine whether it would be beneficial to the estate to assume
it. Durkin v. Benedor Corp. (In re G.I. Indus., Inc.), 204 F.3d 1276, 1282 (9th Cir. 2000) (bankruptcy court applies the business judgment rule to evaluate assumption or rejection 1 decisions); In re Continental Country Club, Inc., 114 B.R. 763, 767 (Bankr. M.D. Fla. 1990); 2 see also In re Gucci, 193 B.R. at 415.

3 A debtor in possession satisfies the “business judgment” test when it decides, in good 4 faith, that the assumption or rejection may benefit the estate. In re FCX, Inc., 60 B.R. 405, 411
5 (E.D.N.C. 1986); In re Chipwich, Inc., 54 B.R. 427, 430-31 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1985); Comm'l
6 Fin. Ltd. v Hawaii Dimensions, Inc. (In re Hawaii Dimensions, Inc.), 47 B.R. 425, 427 (D. Haw.
7 1985) (bankruptcy courts generally approve the debtor in possession’s decision on assumption 8 or rejection absent a showing of bad faith, abuse of discretion, or a clear demonstration that the 9 assumption or rejection will not benefit the estate or its creditors). In re FCX, Inc., 60 S.R. at 10 411-12; In re Chipwich, 54 B.R. at 430-31. The business judgment standard requires that the 11 court follow the business judgment of the debtor unless that judgment is the product of bad 12 faith, whim, or caprice. In re Prime Motors Inns, 124 B.R. 378, 381 (Bankr. S.D. Fla. 1991), 13 citing Lubrizol Enterprises v. Richmond Metal Finishers, 756 F.2d 1043, 1047 (4th Cir. 1985), 14 cert. denied, 475 U.S. 1057 (1986).

15 In Summit Land Co. v. Allen (In re Summit Land Co.), 13 B.R. 310 (Bankr. D.Utah 16 1981), the bankruptcy court explained why deference is given to the debtor in possession’s 17 decision to assume or reject an executory contract or unexpired lease:

18 “[Court approval under section 365(a).] if required, except in 19 extraordinary situations, should be granted as a matter of course.
20 To begin, this rule places responsibility for administering the estate 21 with the trustee (debtor in possession), not the court, and therefore 22 furthers the policy of judicial independence considered vital by the 23 authors of the Code. Seconds this rule expedites the administration 24 of estates, another goal of the Bankruptcy Reform Act. Third, the 25 rule encourages rehabilitation by permitting the replacement of 26 marginal with profitable business arrangements. Fourth, the rule is 27 supported by pre-Code cases in this Circuit.”

28 Id. at 315.

26 Additionally, the assumption of executory contracts and unexpired leases furthers the 27 goals of Chapter 11 of promoting reorganization by balancing the debtor’s interest in maximizing the value of its estate against the contracting party's interest in receiving the benefit of its bargain and being protected against default by the debtor after assumption has occurred. In re Embers 86th Street. Inc., 184 B.R. 892, 896 (Bankr.S.D.N.Y.1995).

B. Adequate Assurance of Future Performance

In general, a debtor must cure all defaults, both monetary and non-monetary, prior to the assumption of an executory contract or unexpired lease. 11 U.S.C. § 365(b); In re Claremont Acquisition Corp., Inc., 113 F.3d 1029, 1033 (9th Cir. 1997). Bankruptcy Code section 365(b)(1) provides, in relevant part, that:

if there has been a default in an executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor, the [debtor in possession] may not assume such contract or lease unless, at the time of assumption of such contract or lease, the [debtor in possession] —

(A) cures, or provides adequate assurance that the [debtor in possession] will promptly cure, such default ...;

(B) compensates, or provides adequate assurance that the [debtor in possession] will promptly compensate, a party other than the debtor to such contract or lease, for any actual pecuniary loss to such party resulting from such default; and

(C) provides adequate assurance of future performance under such contract or lease.”

| 11 U.S.C. § 365(b)(1).

To the extent not already assumed or rejected, Exhibit 4 to the Plan sets forth the executory contracts and unexpired leases that the Debtor will assume along with the cure amounts, which will conclusively be determined to be the cure amounts upon confirmation of the Plan.

The Debtor is able to provide “adequate assurance of future performance” for these contracts and leases, as demonstrated by its ability to cure the defaults and its past ability to perform the contracts and leases without material default. Moreover, the Debtor is current on all post-petition obligations under the contracts and leases, unless otherwise noted (the Debtor is not current on prepetition or post-petition payments to ESP on account of the consignment

1 agreement, and, according to the Term Sheet and Plan, these past-due amounts are not paid
2 under the Plan). Based on the Debtor's pre-petition and post-petition history, the revenues 3 historically generated by the Debtor's business operations, and the Debtor's available cash, the 4 Debtor is able to provide adequate assurance of future performance, as modified and agreed to 5 by the parties under the Plan. Accordingly, as part of the Plan, the Court should approve the 6 cure and assumption of the contracts and leases as set forth on Exhibit 4 to the Plan.

7 VII. CONCLUSION

8 WHEREFORE, based on the foregoing the Debtor respectfully requests that the Court 9 enter an order:

- 10 1. Granting this Motion;
- 11 2. Affirming the Notice of this Motion, the Plan, the Hearing on this Motion and 12 confirmation of the Plan;
- 13 3. Overruling any objections to confirmation of the Plan;
- 14 4. Confirming the Plan pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1129;
- 15 5. Granting the Debtor a discharge pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1141(d) that includes an 16 injunction to enforce such discharge;
- 17 6. Authorizing the Debtor to assume the contracts and leases set forth in the Plan with 18 the cure amounts determined as set forth in the Motion;
- 19 7. Setting a post-confirmation status conference; and
- 20 8. Granting such other and further relief as may be just and appropriate under the 21 circumstances of the case.
